

Colossians 1-Live with an Acknowledgment of God

Written by
Sunday, 29 August 2010 00:00

{play}dl/20100829Colossians1.mp3{/play}

23:16 Minutes

"Again, there's only one perfect man in The Bible, Jesus Christ. Yet there are many saints in The Bible."

"It's better translated (Colossians 1:6) 'bearing fruit and growing, that is you are bearing fruit from having a knowledge of The Mystery and you are growing.

"We know God sent The Lord Jesus Christ, Jesus Christ fulfilled the works required of the redeemer, we are redeemed, sanctified, made holy and righteous, he knows that. But to acknowledge that is something else. That is where the faithfulness comes in."

"To walk out into this world and acknowledge that you are (redeemed, sanctified, made holy and righteous) that's remaining faithful to what you've been taught. And once again, you do that."

"epignosis, the acknowledgment of God. To live your life everyday, whatever you have to do throughout the day with the acknowledgment that God is there with you, that He's vitally interested in what you are doing and He wants to help you in all ways that He has available. He wants to. That's to live with an acknowledgment of God. Not to ignore Him. To acknowledge Him throughout the day."

"When you and I got born again we are no longer pawns of the adversary we are sons and daughters of God we became saints, holy ones. Our status changed. Our placement, yeah that's going to change after the return, when we are gathered to meet the Lord in the air, your physical position will change."

"And we've got nothing to take seriously from the world when it denies the Truth of God's Word, its all a lie. It's all a lie and it doesn't matter who says it."

Colossians 1-Live with an Acknowledgment of God

Written by

Sunday, 29 August 2010 00:00

Colossians 1:1-12

I Corinthians 13:2

Luke 16:4

Colossians 1:13-23, 10-12
