"I don't want to chase a job, a house, I don't want to chase things; I want to have Father direct me."

"I've said it before but I've learned more in this year than I have in all the time I've been alive about Father."

"I know how much you love your kid, just imagine how much I love you and wouldn't give exactly what you need because I love you and you're my kid."
